can help!

So, how can Brad Melton Ministries assist Tennessee Baptists with Mormonism?

We can...

EDUCATE your members about the differences between Mormonism and Christianity.

EQUIP your members to more effectively witness to Mormons.

INOCULATE those Christians most likely to convert before they are tempted.

How do we do this?

Brad Melton, a former temple Mormon and Mormon Missionary to Argentina, has taught his seminar, "Mormonism, Christianity, & Me," to more than 10,000 Christians! A former youth and college pastor of five years, Brad is able to effectively shape his message for youth and young adults as well as general adult audiences.

"Mormonism, Christianity, & Me": In this multi-media seminar, Brad explains who the Mormons are culturally and historically, shares his own deeply personal journey into and out of Mormonism, compares several Mormon and Christian doctrines (God, Jesus, Salvation, Priesthood, Scripture), exposes what takes place in secret temple ceremonies, provides a first-hand look at Mormon garments and temple clothing, explains why Christians convert to Mormonism and the reality of life on the inside, explores major challenges to Mormonism, and equips Christians to more effectively witness to Mormons.

Who is Brad Melton?

A Southern Baptist pastor, writer, and popular conference speaker, Brad is the founder and executive director of Brad Melton Ministries. His ministry is endorsed by the Arizona Southern Baptist Convention, two SBC Associations, and dozens of congregations. His family lives in Arizona and they are looking to move to the Tennessee-Kentucky area. Brad converted to Mormonism in college, participated in ceremonies at three Mormon temples, served a mission in Argentina, and left Mormonism in his mid-twenties. Married for twelve years, Brad and Jennifer are blessed with three children. Brad also teaches Biblical World-and-Life View Education, Family Ministry, and Christian Apologetics.
